

Regulations of Florida A&M University

10.209 Change-in-Assignment of Faculty and Administrative and Professional Employees.

The President or President's designee may for the best interests of the University, at any time, assign a Faculty or Administrative and Professional (A & P) employee to other institutional assignments only after consultation with the employee and the departments or other units affected. Regardless of the change-in-assignment, however, the University is committed to compensate the employee. Employees whose assignments are being made in conjunction with a nonreappointment shall be reassigned pursuant to Regulation 10.207. ~~Rule 6C3-10.233, F.A.C.~~ This regulation ~~(Rule 6C3-10.235, F.A.C.)~~ shall only apply to a change-in-assignment when nonreappointment is not intended by the University. Work assignments are grievable pursuant to Regulation 10.206. ~~Rule 6C3-10.232, F.A.C.~~