UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

Mission

The mission of the Florida A&M University Libraries is to provide a user centered information environment that supports inspirational teaching, exemplary research, meaningful service, and life long learning to the local and global university community.

Libraries

Main Library Coleman Memorial Library

Samuel H. Coleman Memorial Library, the University's main library, is named for Samuel Harrison Coleman, who served the University as general alumni president for 14 years. The Library was built in 1948, renovated in 1972, and in 1990. In 2004 a six million dollar, five-story, 47,100 square feet wing was added to the existing space. The branch libraries, which are located in selected schools and colleges, offer resources and services in their respective disciplines. It may be necessary to utilize the main library as well as any of the branch libraries, which are open to all.
